BATTING SIKI

Cupid and Siki

More than a year ago, when theastic Idol of Europe was toppled from his pedestal, the White Champion light-heavyweight of the world was obscured by a Dark Cloud. In other words, Battling Siki delivered the blows heard round the world, knocking out Georges Georges in the 5th round of their fight in Paris. Siki is a brave man. If his medals don't prove it, the fact that he earned eight as Irakham in Dublin on St. Patrick's day certainly does. We may look for some action in the Light Heavyweight division, with Siki and Carpenter both on the warpath and Carpenter anxious for a return match.

HOBART HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Robert High School Basketball Team Has Vision of Defeating Oneonta High—Other Games Scheduled.

When Coach Riedolph heard that the Hobart High school basketball team felt that it could defeat his charges, wearers of the Yellow and White, he immediately made every effort to arrange a game, and in this he was successful. The Hobart quintet will come to Oneonta on Friday evening and the hosts are anxiously awaiting a chance to show the Darkies exactly just what brand of basketball it takes to trim the G. M. & S.

The local boys have been practicing steadily during the holidays and have several new tricks almost popping out of the bag. They certainly will show a much improved game on Friday night and it is expected that there will be a large attendance to see on just what Hobart bases her claim of a better basketball team.

However the strength of the visitors is not being underrated, since they have not lost a game thus far this season. Their line-up is not known, but the Yellow and White will line up: Molinari and Olson guard, Permian, center, and Dailey, McGuiness and Delaney, forwards. In the substitutes, Bates, Sheppard, Dooley, Mulligan and Orr. Coach Riedolph has another quintet almost equal to the others five men and a substitution may be made without materially weakening the team.

The game on Friday night will begin at 8 o'clock, although it is hoped that a preliminary may be arranged to start at 7 o'clock, and dancing as usual will follow the contests.

Further dates which complete the schedule of the local team, have been arranged as follows: Jan. 11, Walton, there; Jan. 18, Hartwick seminary here, and Feb. 11, Walton here.

Good Lucking?

Lou—Always looking in the mirror! How vain you are, dear.

Sue—Me vain? Not me! Why, I don't think I'm nearly as pretty as you really am.—[New York Sun and Globe.]

How can accurate passing be developed?

Answered by

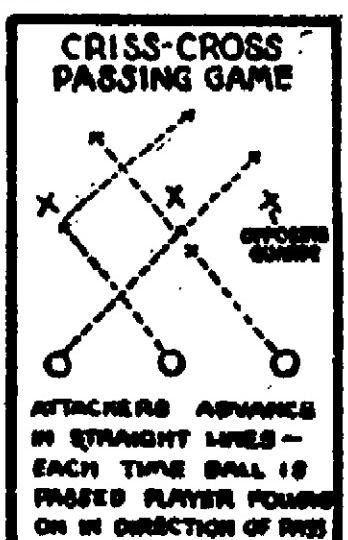

JAMES L. MCNAUL

Member of University of Pennsylvania basketball team and one of the "University McNauls," the most famous family of players in the game.

Accurate passing is best developed by separating the candidates into groups, or, better still, into teams and having several performances. In this way, the player is required to pass the ball to a member of his own team who is always varying his distance and angle. The practice of passing a ball to a target which has varying distance and difficult location will do more than anything to develop accurate passing.

Another thing that natural selection will do is to develop the passing under actual conditions, as they will be found in the game. Many a player is apt to think when he has plenty of time, but when hurried will make a bad pass. Showing the necessity of passing in actual conditions.

What are the advantages of the criss-cross passing game?

Answered by

W. R. MEANWELL

Coach, University of Wisconsin, inventor of the short passing game, the criss-cross attack and the five man defense. Always has a dangerous and leading team in the Conference.

The criss-cross is a term given to a style of footwork employed in the offense of basketball, usually the short pass attack. The attackers advance in straight lines and do not run in curves or circles to elude the guards. The course is from side to side and obliquely forward, usually gaining 8 or 10 feet toward the goal with each cross.

For this play it is essential that each time the ball is passed, the thrower follows on in the direction of the pass and runs behind the receiver. The advantage of this short pass of players and of directions are very definite in short pass work.

The constant rapid shifting of men confuses the opposing guards and renders it very difficult for the passing players to shake out and effectively cover any specified opponent. Again, it leaves the recovery of a majority of the dropped balls to the men who follow the pass, he being in the best position to see and to recover the ball.

Third, it conserves the men in proximity to the ball, and so leads to fast passing and effective team work.

Outlook for State This Year Promising, Smith States in His Message

Only Necessary to Sink Petty, Personal and Partisan Battles to Achieve Success That Lies in Future—State Should Assume Greater Responsibility for Public Safety—Favor Quick Payment of Authorized Soldier Bonus—Public Health Matter of Interest and Concern to Whole State.

STATE OF NEW YORK

Executive Chamber.

Albany, Jan. 2, 1924.

To the Legislature:

The year 1924 dawns upon our state full of promise for the future. We have abundant reason to be thankful to Almighty God for the blessings that He has showered upon us in the past. Putting forth our best efforts in appreciation of these benefactions we have reason to hope for their continuance. The pathway of progress is clear before us. We have but to sink petty, personal and partisan notions to achieve the success that lies in our wake. The state cannot afford to stop at the blank wall of mere administration. It must constantly strive to meet the new problems that continue to arise, beyond the solution of which there is a better way for the citizenship that makes up the state.

Government itself is subject to all the frailties that attack human kind upon the theory that there is nothing in the world so good that it could not be better. No government has reached the point where it can safely stand still or turn its back upon that which spells progress. We are living in the age of the greatest material advance that the world has ever known and in this, the Empire State, we are particularly charged with keeping the government in harmonious step. Agencies of the government equipped to operate successfully a quarter of a century ago are practically useless today.

The theory of representative democratic government is that the people themselves being unable to gather in any one place and make their own laws have delegated that power to representatives, and all problems of state-wide concern should be viewed by the members of the Legislature from the standpoint of the well-being of all the people of the state. When the power of public office given by a direct grant from the people themselves is subordinated to any consideration other than the public welfare, the man or men holding the grant cannot be otherwise than unfaithful to their trust. It is a great honor and a high privilege to be permitted to speak for the heart and conscience of the people of the greatest State in the Union.

Defending meritorious legislation for partisan advantage is in effect putting the party above the state. No man or group of men can expect to last very long taking that attitude. There is no permanency in any position that has for its foundation a supposedly short memory on the part of the masses of our people. Every suggestion from whatever source which tends to promote the welfare of the people of the state is entitled to the earnest attention of the Legislature.

Representative democratic government is not without its弊. Nothing leaves them more helpless than to be able to point to definite progress. There are altogether too many disciples of the doctrine that our Constitution and state laws are intended only to protect property and money. Every state designed for the better care of the poor, the sick, and the afflicted as well as every effort on the part of the state to add to the health, happiness and comfort of her people, is a complete answer to their unreason. It is possible for the state to perform an errand of mercy and do it in such a businesslike way as to bring substantial returns.

At the close of the old year and the beginning of the new, let us take account of stock and let us examine our consciences and see if we can honestly say to ourselves that in the past we have done all we could in the discharge of the duties that fell to our lot. Let us ask these questions of ourselves in some detail.

Report of the State Finances

For bookkeeping purposes the state recognizes a year other than the calendar year for calculating its financial condition. This of necessity leads to considerable confusion in the mind of the ordinary man when he attempts to read state financial reports in the terms in which they are usually drawn by bookkeepers and accountants who have themselves a clear knowledge of the whole situation but are unable to appreciate the layman's difficulty.

In order that it may be before you and the people of the state in such a manner as to be easily understood, I will try to put it in language other than that used by the people who usually prepare these statements.

On June 30, 1923, the State of New York owed to its bondholders $104,211,500.00

To meet that indebtedness, there was on that date in the sinking fund of the state $10,150,725.61

Leaving a net state debt to be met by future annual contributions to the sinking fund of $101,120,704.61

In the last fiscal year, that is, from July 1, 1922, to July 1, 1923, we redeemed of the state bonds $10,763,000.00 and we increased our sinking fund for the year $10,000,000.00 leaving a total of $10,763,000.00 and this is the net amount due on the state's debt for that fiscal year.

tions and the amount of revenue to be derived from taxes of all kinds.

STORM BRINGS HEAVY SNOWS TO NEW YORK

Comparatively Little Damage Reported on Land or At Sea—Liners Delayed—16,000 Men Closing Streets

PHILADELPHIA HIT

Rain Turns Streets into Slush Near-Foot Deep—22-Inch Fall Reported at Bethlehem, Pa.—Many Drifts

New York, Jan. 2.—Winter came to New York in earnest today, arriving on the wings of a hard-driven storm to send the thermometer to 26 above zero and cover the city with six inches of snow by dusk.

Comparatively little damage was reported ashore and afloat, in spite of the high winds that roared out of the northwest and the density of the snow fall, which blotted vision like a heavy fog. Several drivers were delayed getting into port; there were a few minor traffic accidents throughout the city, and trains and ferry boats with their business-bound loads of men and women travelled in the main, or near schedule.

Sixteen thousand men, with 417 motor driven snow plows and sweepers, were at work removing the snow by noon. Tanker Narrowly Misses Rocks.

Or two ships damaged off the Atlantic coast, the Clyde Liner Mohawk, owned most of her troubles to a fire which broke out in her after hold a short time after she had cleared New York for Charleston and Jacksonville. The Mohawk had to be beached at Lewes, Del., after her passengers had been transferred to the cutter Kickapoo over a raging sea and in the face of a 45-mile wind.

The other ship, the British tanker Uloolo, narrowly averted being blown ashore off Seabright, N. J., when caught in the gale as she was approaching New York in ballast from Norfolk. Blinded by the storm, her captain did not realize how far he had gone off the course until the booming of the surf on the Jersey coast assailed his ears. He immediately sent out a series of S. O. S. calls, but before the coastwise cutter Coast Guard Cutter Graham could get to him he wired that he had managed to swim to deep water and safety and advised that his crippled vessel could make port unaided.

Philadelphia Wades Through Slush; Deep Drifts Reported

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—The snow storm, which had held eastern Pennsylvania in its grip since early this morning, turned to rain tonight and the howard bound multitude in the city slithered and slid through the slush that reached nearly to the tops of their shoes. Many of them were forced to walk blocks because of the tieup in trolley traffic.

Two Philadelphians died from exposure and a third from exhaustion in battling his way through the storm.

In upstate towns the storm was much more severe. At Bethlehem snow reached a depth of 22 inches, seriously delaying railroad and trolley traffic and blocking the highways. Scranton and Hazleton reported a suspension of operations at some of the anthracite mines because of the storm, blocked streets and country roads and dead-end traffic. Eight inches of snow fell at Scranton and six at Wilkes-Barre. The ork also had a heavy fall and Harrisburg reported the closing of three state highways, two in Erie county with drifts 11 feet high, and another in the vicinity of Gettysburg.

FIRST DEPOSIT MADE TO PAY SOLDIER BONUS CERTIFICATES

Washington, Jan. 2.—The treasury has made its financial program for meeting the requirements of the soldiers' bonus and today made its first deposit—$100,000,000—in a special account from which the adjusted service certificates will be paid.

It is the plan to add each year a similar amount under the law to this special account, and this sum, with its interest compounded annually at four per cent is calculated to be sufficient to meet all payments on the service certificates when they mature some 20 years hence. Provision is made whereby the fund is equipped from this date to meet such maturing certificates as may be due as a result of deaths of the beneficiaries and the additions to the fund are expected to be able to care for the gradually increasing maturing of the future years.

WILL BEGIN INSPECTION OF NATIONAL GUARD MONDAY

Piermont, Jan. 2.—The annual federal and state inspection of all units of the New York National Guard, headquarters officers unassisted today, will begin Monday under the direction of Colonel Adolphus Wright, senior inspector of the New York state guard. Inspection will be made of every board and armory, and of all equipment and arms of every unit of the Guard. Colonel William R. Wright, the executive officer of the Brooklyn rifle camp and a member of the headquarters staff, and Lieutenant Colonel Allen L. Rogers, aide of the headquarters staff, will be the chief inspecting officers.

CLINTOCK DIED OF TYPHOID FEVER

Secondary Influenza Intensified His Severe Complicated Disease, Coroner Reports

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Doctors and physicians who examined the deceased body of William Nelson McClintock, 21-year-old "millionaire orphan" who died a month ago, have decided that the young man's death was due to typhoid fever complicated by a secondary internal intestinal hemorrhage. Coroner Oscar Wolf announced today after their reports had been submitted to him.

William D. Shepherd, who with his wife, the boy's guardian, raised young McClintock and inherited his fortune, accepted the findings as a complete vindication of any suspicion the authorities have attached to him, and in a statement indicated that he expected to bring legal action against those he believes responsible for the investigation.

Shepherd Says Officers Did Duty.

The inquest into the death, which was to have been resumed today, was continued until next Tuesday. Meanwhile assistant state attorneys who have been investigating circumstances connected with the death examined several new witnesses regarding Shepherd's visits to a research laboratory four years ago.

Mr. Shepherd, expressed his thanks to the authorities who have been making the investigation, stating that they had only done their duty, but expressing the opinion that they had been imposed on.

Discussing the part in the investigation of Judge Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal court, friend of the McClintock family, and the man who asked that the investigation be launched, Mr. Shepherd's statement said:

"I know that in the minds of all thinking people, I have been vindicated, yet in my own mind there is still one big question. Why was it done? One but Judge Olson can explain that."

UNITED KINGDOM GREATLY HARMED

Codes and Floods, Exceeding Any of Past 30 Years, Causing Enormous Losses

(From the Associated Press)

London, Jan. 2.—Reports reaching London tonight from all parts of the United Kingdom, including Ireland, indicate that the present gale has established a record for over 20 years for its fierceness and continuity. The list of material damages is swelling hourly, although few personal casualties have thus far been reported.

Despatches from Glasgow tonight stated that the 70-mile an hour gale there was followed by a blizzard. Midlands and Wales report the dislocation of traffic and the destruction of property at many points by floods, hail and tempest.

Shipping has been chiefly affected and advises from the south coast state that the channel had been virtually deserted.

The Thames valley is all awash and the historic spots of Runnymede and Magna Charta island have disappeared from view, only the isolated tops of barges being visible above the swirling waters.

The United States Shipping Board steamer Ebleck, bound from Liverpool for New York, sent a wireless message yesterday that she was unable to proceed owing to a broken throttle valve, according to a despatch to Lloyd's from Land's End, on the southern coast of England. The despatch from the vessel said that it might be possible to effect temporary repairs, but that it was advisable to send her assistance immediately.

EXPRESS OFFICE BORNE.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—The American Railway Express office at the LaSalle street terminal was robbed of $12,000 by three men today, two of whom escaped on a departing New York Central train. The third was captured by station employee, and later identified by police as Louis Berardi, a companion of Carl Fontana, leader of a gang which has been implicated in several robberies here. The robbers cut the telephone wires leading up to the express office, lured up the employees against the wall and made their escape with the loot.

MURDERER ADJUDGED INSANE.

Bridgewater, Mass., Jan. 2.—Baritone Vasselli, convicted with Nicola Sacco of the murder of a paymaster and his guard in South Braintree, April 15, 1920, was committed to the Bridgewater hospital for the insane today. He had been adjudged insane by a doctor who had him under observation since prison officials reported him acting strangely two weeks ago.

SUPERINTENDENT QUITS.

Syracuse, Jan. 2.—Dr. Charles H. Young, for two years superintendent of the Hospital of the Good Shepherd, has submitted his resignation, according to an announcement tonight by Chancellor Charles W. Flatt, of Syracuse university, of which the hospital is a part. Dr. Young is to become head of the Maine general hospital at Portland, Me.

INSPECTED BY COAL.

Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 2.—Carl Strode, 29, was smothered to death this afternoon when he fell into a coal car and was carried through a chute, while unloading coal at the pier of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

QUICK ACT OF OPERATOR PROBABLY SAVES WOMAN

Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 2.—The instant and quick action of a telephone operator tonight probably saved the life of Mrs. Eliza Ashe, 65, of Union Hill, when she was overcome with heart trouble while telephoning to her son.

Mrs. Jennie Boykin, supervising operator, heard the words, "I am dying," and the click of a receiver as it was dropped, and at once traced the call. She notified the police, who broke into the house through a window and found Mrs. Ashe lying unconscious on the floor.

Town physician Schulman was called and revived Mrs. Ashe. He said she would recover, but if Miss Boykin had not cut the alarm, Mrs. Ashe would probably have died.

ANGELL AND OTHERS CONFISCATE LIQUOR

New Enforcement Chief Seizes Two Carloads of Beer—Others Raid Store and Cafes

Syracuse, Jan. 2.—While Robert D. Angell, new prohibition enforcement chief of the Syracuse district, was superintending the confiscation today of a carload of beer in the West Shore freight yards and another on a siding in the Watertown yards, federal agents were raiding a grocery store at Jamestown and police were visiting a score of cafés in the city crusade against rum venders.

Angell opened his term of office by appearing at 8 o'clock this morning at the office of United States Commissioner Henderson to ask for a warrant for the seizure of a carload of alleged beer which had been under guard Thursday night in the West Shore yards.

Angell then left for Watertown to seize another carload of alleged beer which was being guarded by Jefferson county authorities. He intimated before he left that he would begin an investigation which is likely to involve a Watertown brewery, a Syracuse warehouse, and a local syndicate which is said to control the transportation and distribution of beer in central New York.

DRYEST NEW YEAR'S EVER IN NEW YORK

200 Dry Agents Busy Day and Night for Last Two Weeks of Year to Halt Traffic

New York, Jan. 2.—R. Q. Merrick, divisional federal prohibition chief for New York and northern New Jersey, today declared that New Year's eve celebration was "the soberest in the history of the city." Mr. Merrick said that during the last two weeks in December 200 agents worked day and night to obtain evidence of Volstead law violations throughout Manhattan and the Bronx, and procured warrants against 40 places.

Twenty-one of the warrants misfired, Mr. Merrick admitted. When the agents arrived on New Year's eve at the places named in the warrants they found the police had preceded them by a few hours and had padlocked the establishments.

The remaining 19 warrants, however, according to the prohibition chief, resulted in 42 arrests and the seizure of $10,000 worth of liquor. More than 200 places in all were visited by the agents new year's eve, but most of them were "inside the law," Mr. Merrick asserted.

NOT RAILED; JAILED.

Dayton, O., Jan. 2.—Morton S. Hawkinson, president of the defunct Hawkins Mortgage company of Indiana, who was arrested here early today on a charge of being a fugitive during the last two weeks in December 200 agents worked day and night to obtain evidence of Volstead law violations throughout Manhattan and the Bronx, and procured warrants against 40 places.

Although denying the receipt of details of the French proposal, treasury officials nevertheless drew certain conclusions respecting the method by which France hoped to arrange a funding settlement.

Something of a keen interest manifested in the French minister's plan was reflected in the prompt dispatch of cables to Ambassador Herrick requesting him to forward without delay the full text of the proposition. Up to a late hour tonight, however, no reply had been received from the Paris embassy.

With full possession of the facts, Secretary Hughes will transmit them to Secretary Mellon, chairman of the American debt funding commission, which alone has the power to decide whether the plan will be acceptable to this country.

Twenty-one of the warrants misfired, Mr. Merrick admitted. When the agents arrived on New Year's eve at the places named in the warrants they found the police had preceded them by a few hours and had padlocked the establishments.

The remaining 19 warrants, however, according to the prohibition chief, resulted in 42 arrests and the seizure of $10,000 worth of liquor. More than 200 places in all were visited by the agents new year's eve, but most of them were "inside the law," Mr. Merrick asserted.

NO ACTION ON COAL CONFER.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 2.—No action was taken at the meeting of the district committee board and field workers here today on the question of calling a special convention of district No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, to consider the strike of 11,000 miners of the Pennsylvania Coal company, and the labor situation generally in the Pittston anthracite field.

While reduced rates are commanded for second class mail as compared with those proposed by the post office department, Senator Moses estimated the service charge on parcel post will bring in $20,000 additional and the new expedition service at least $2,000 per annum.

REVISION MADE IN PROPOSED POSTAL RATES

Greatly Modified Schedule Provided for in Second-Class Matter in Resolution Reported to Senate

EXPECT MORE MAIL

Cuts Expected to Induce Big Publishers to Ship by Mail Rather Than by Express—Action to Beat Veto Vote

Washington, Jan. 2.—Sharp revision of the administration bill providing increases in postal rates to meet the cost of the proposed advances in salaries of postal employees, was made today by the Senate post office committee.

The new measure provides for greatly modified rate increases in second class mail as compared with recommendations of the post office department.

Minor changes in first and fourth class matter also were made. Senator Moses estimated the bill would raise about $60,000,000 additional revenue, compared with $48,000,000 proposed to be raised under the post office schedules.

The legislation, however, is designed as only temporary, effective from April 15 this year to February 15, 1926, with a special joint committee of the Senate and House authorized to conduct hearings on rate increases and report a plan for permanent legislation the first week of Congress.

Under the new bill no changes would be made in first class mail rates except an increase from one to two cents on private mailing cards and souvenir post cards.

PROPOSED RATES ANNOUNCED.

All reading portions of publications now subject to second class rates would be charged one and one fourth cent a pound, a reduction of one-fourth of a cent from the present law and three-fourths of a cent from that recommended by the post office Religious, educational, and reading periodicals.

Rates on advertising portions of publications subject to zone rates are revised with the eight zones reduced to three. A charge of three cents a pound on the present first three zones is provided, six cents a pound on the fourth, fifth, and sixth zones, and eight cents a pound on the seventh and eighth zones.

This is an increase over the present law of one cent on first, second and fourth zone matter, a reduction of one cent in sixth and seventh zones, and two cents in eighth zone.

Present rates for third class mail are retained but the limit of weight acceptable in this class is reduced from eight to four ounces. Increased rates in this class had been proposed by the post office department.

25 CENTS FOR SPECIAL SERVICE.

Likewise present fourth class mail rates, including those on parcel post, are retained. A service charge of two cents on all parcel post packages is provided, however, and the excess charge on packages weighing over five pounds is increased slightly.

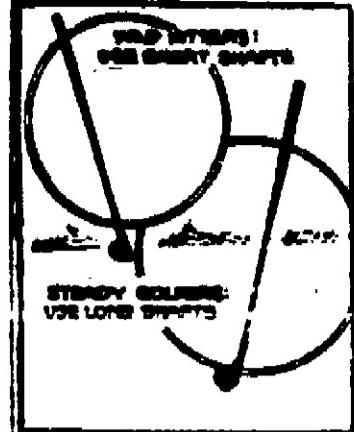

A new provision creates an expedition service for the parcel post at a cost of 25 cents per package. Under this service packages would receive special routing, dispatching, and handling from the point of origin to delivery.

Increases recommended by the post office department on money orders, registered mail, special delivery, and insurance and collection delivery services were approved.

Thus, on insurance fees, the minimum is advanced from three to five cents with lesser adjustments in the higher rates.

Golf

AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

For the driver and blade do you favor short shafts? Please explain.

By WM. MERLBORN.

U. S. Western Open Champion.

This all depends on whether you want direction or distance. If you are a long and wild hitter, a short shaft will help you to keep the ball straighter, but will cut down the distance. The golfer that hits them straight down the center usually has a slow swing, so a longer and heavier club would help him to hit a longer ball, but no player should use a longer club than he can control. A long wailor is no good unless you can control it. Direction beats distance any day in the week. If you can't get both distance and direction, it's better to sacrifice distance and stay in the fairway, also cheaper. If you figure the cost of balls.

Coach Rockne Decides Against Game With University of California.

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 2.—Knute Rockne, coach of Notre Dame football team, late today issued the word that killed all chances of a meeting between his eleven and the University of California team here.

Rockne, who had been considering all day the proposal advanced by alumni of both institutions, said his team had received severe battering in the New Year's day clash with Stanford.

Harry Stuhldreher, quarterback, is in the Pasadena hospital with a broken ankle bone in a cast; Joe Bach has a strained vertebrae, and Bill Gernay has two fractured ribs. The latter two players are not in the hospital. These injuries, said the coach, would greatly weaken his team.

Moreover, he added, his men were scheduled to resume their studies at Notre Dame January 5.

The Rockne men leave tomorrow for San Francisco.

The church being at present without a rector, Rev. O. Edgerton of Lake Delaware conducted the service. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery. Mrs. Pitcher, nee Fanny Face, was the second wife of the late Abram Pitcher. Mrs. J. A. Griffin, a niece, had been looking after her late and she was all right when last seen, which was only an hour or two before the tragedy was discovered. STATE IN HIS MESSAGE executive of recent years that the present term of the Governor should be lengthened. The two year term may have been all right thirty years ago when the activities of the State by comparison with today were very few.

In 1904 the term of the Mayor of Greater New York was extended from two to four years. The argument then given in both Houses of the Legislature was that the affairs of the City of New York were of such magnitude that no man should be reasonably expected to accomplish much in a two year term. That argument applies with even greater force to the Governor of the State.

Statutory Consolidation of State Department.

Pending the final adoption by the people of the amendment to the Constitution for the consolidation of departments, boards and commissions, there is much that can be done by statute immediately to consolidate some of the over-lapping existing departments and the complete abolition of many others.

Emergency Rent Laws to Be Extended

The Commission informs me that there is great anxiety among tenants lest these laws be not promptly extended. No time should be lost in taking action. I recommend that the existing laws be re-enacted for a period of at least two years. The detailed recommendations and the facts on which they are based are contained in full in the Commission's report and no argument by me is needed to strengthen what is therein presented for your consideration.

Housing is such an elemental need that we always speak of the three necessities of life together—food, clothing and shelter. The search for decent homes in wholesome surroundings at rental figures possible to the lower income groups is almost hopeless.

Sudden Death.

Under-taker W. L. Mason was called to the former Foreman farm in Kortright this morning by the death of a man named Ditty, aged 77.

Need of Financing for Low-Cost Homes.

The report of the State Housing Commission confirms in every respect the recommendation of the Reconstruction Commission which I transmitted four years ago on the subject of State aid for the construction of homes. The facts as disclosed by the Housing Commission's investigations thus far show that one of the most important things necessary to stimulate the construction of homes and dwellings for those of moderate wage earning capacity is a free supply of money at low rates of interest.

State Aid to Localities for Child Welfare

I renew the recommendation made last year that the State assist local child welfare authorities by assuming a certain proportion of the funds to be expended for the assistance of widows and other specified groups of needy mothers with young children. I believe that the State should be interested in this work for children and should encourage the various communities to become interested in it by direct contribution from the State funds.

State Aid to Localities for Child Welfare

I recommend this on the ground that the welfare of a child in any part of the State is a matter of interest and concern not only to that locality, but to the State as a whole. Certainly the State makes no mistake in giving her support and assistance to localities, and being willing to meet the locality's contribution by an amount, for preserving to children the benefits of home life upon the death of their father.

Automobile Regulation

The State should assume a greater measure of responsibility for public safety. One of the most vexing problems which the State is called upon to meet is the growth in the number of automobiles. It has increased from 192,000 in 1916 to 1,000,000 in 1922—an increase in nine years of more than 660 per cent. Next year more than 1,300,000 automobiles will be licensed—an increase of 866 per cent over ten years ago. The outlook is that we shall license 1,500,000 in 1924 and at least 1,800,000 in 1925.

As the number of cars increases, the number of operators automatically increases. There is no corresponding figure in the mileage of streets and highways. Therefore, as we add naturally from two to three hundred thousand more cars to a given mileage of streets and highways, congestion becomes more pronounced and the chance of accident is increased in proportion.

Elimination of Present Grade Crossings

Enormously increased use of our public highways by automobiles has presented to the State a very grave problem, the solution of which will materially cut down the annual toll of death by accidents.

Use of State Credit for Financing Housing.

No time should be lost in initiating the first step. The State must be enabled first to extend its credit under well-defined restrictions to housing operations, and this can only be accomplished by the passage of a constitutional amendment. It takes two years to effect this and if in that time there has not been sufficient change in private methods of financing, then at least the State will be in a position to offer relief. This does not mean that the State is to engage in the business of constructing homes, but it should be in the position of financing their construction in accordance with a sound and well-defined policy.

Public Health

One of the chief concerns of government should be the health of its citizens. It is a matter of interest to the whole State.

The State should be more rigorous in the prosecution for violations of the Medical Practice Act and I cannot help thinking that violators should be prosecuted by the Attorney-General, because I am satisfied that a violation of that law is a crime not alone against the people of any locality, but against the people of the whole State.

Public Education

The stability of the State and its institutions depends upon the enlightenment of its people, and this can only be attained by the effective maintenance of a system of public schools in which all the children of the State may receive educational opportunity.

Liberated Support for Schools

With the present demands upon them, the cost of maintaining our public schools is like the cost of everything else, increasing greatly. The tax burden of maintaining them is heavy. Yet, however great the cost and burden, the State cannot afford to withhold its full support. We must be liberal in our treatment of the public schools, and give careful and intelligent consideration to provisions for their administration.

Good laws for State Institutions

At the last general election, the people of the State approved a $20,000 bond issue to provide for the construction of modern buildings for housing and caring for the State's dependent. A committee of prominent citizens, working in conjunction with the heads of the various departments directly interested, will, at a later date, submit a general plan which will be placed before you providing relief for the various institutions in the order of their needs.

Memorial to Congress on Modification of the Volstead Act

The last session of the Legislature memorialized Congress by resolution to change the present narrow, somewhat arbitrary definition of what constitutes an intoxicating beverage as set forth in the Volstead Act to the end that there may be permitted the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer under the certified certificates set forth in our legislative enactment of 1920. Subsequently the Legislature further clarified the policy of the State in relation to this subject by the repeal of the State law which, in effect, left enforcement of the Volstead Act with both the State and Federal governments, that the best way would be for new legislation only. Alterations and improvements necessary to eliminate the hazards from existing buildings will have to be paid for by appropriations from current funds. As many of the buildings now presenting serious fire risks are too valuable to be torn down, liberal appropriations will be necessary to insure their safety.

Agriculture

None can dispute the importance of promoting the science of agriculture and leading to the men engaged in it every support which the State can give. The present organization of the Council of Farms and Markets, however, is so fundamentally wrong that a chief executive can't deal with it. I have not the pleasure of the acquaintance of the Council of Farms and Markets, and I have met the Commissioner of Agriculture, who is their appointee, about twice. I feel no responsibility for the official acts of these men. I presume they will report to your honorable bodies.

What Will Happen in 1925?

By Fog Murray

Will Mary Browne WIN BOTH THE
NATIONAL GOLF
NATIONAL TENNIS
CHAMPIONSHIPS?

What does the new year hold for the sporting world? What stirring events will take place, what new champions will be crowned in the year 1925? The most sensational upset that might happen would be the defeat of world's heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey. But could this really happen? Certainly — anything can happen—at least in a sport cartoon. Only we wouldn't be so foolish as to dare suggest what the new heavyweight king would look like. Could it be Wills, Gibbons or Renault? Possibly. How about Tunney, who considers himself as the ultimate Nemesis in Dempsey's career — he hopes to be to Jack what Corbett was to John L. Sullivan. Well, it might be Tunney then, but we'll bet four bits it will never be Flipo! And what might happen in 1925 in other sports? Will the long-looked-for man who can run 100 yards in 9.5 seconds be found at last? Will some ambitious young team finally stop the winning streak of the New York Giants? Two things that might happen, too, in the new year are Bill Tilden's entrance into the ranks of professional tennis — perhaps even starting a professional tennis league with Richards, Johnson and other big stars — and the winning of the Davis Cup by some foreign nation. This might happen, but it's very doubtful. In 1924 Mary Browne proved her right to be called the second best woman golfer and tennis player in the United States. Will she be to none in both of these difficult sports in 1925? It's more than very doubtful—but then again—it might happen! (Copyright, 1925, Associated Editors, Inc.)

ing benefited her condition, and she very gladly returned to her home here. Her home family are: her sister, Luella; Mrs. George Wood and her husband, and her uncle, Noble Padgett. She has received constant and loving care from all her family, and every effort has been made for her. But this disease, paroxysms, yields to nothing until release comes in this way.

Miss Leach has always been much respected, though her life and desires were of the quiet unassuming kind, and she had many friends who feel her loss sadly, and much sympathy is felt for her family. Her life was one of pure living and loyalty and love for family and friends.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in St. Matthew's church, her rector, Rev. Yale Lyon, officiating. Burial will be beside her mother in the family plot in Evergreen Hill cemetery, where her father, also, was laid to rest.

Miss Leach, besides Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, and Mr. Padgett, is survived by two brothers, Albert and Leon Leach, and a nephew, Sanford Leach, of Washington, D. C., and several cousins.

COOPERSTOWN ROTARY CLUB

Twenty-five Business and Professional Men Form Club and Apply for Charter—Oneonta Club its Sponsor.

Cooperstown, Jan. 2.—(Special)—Twenty-five of the business and professional men of this village have organized a Rotary club and application has been made to the International organization for a charter, which it is expected will be granted as soon as necessary formalities have been completed. The movement for the establishment of the club has been under way for several months and in the preliminary steps the club has had the active cooperation of Oneonta Rotary club, a fact which has done much to facilitate the successful outcome. Roscoe Briggs of the Oneonta club, as special representative of District Governor Edwin E. Weeks of Binghamton, has made several trips to Cooperstown and has acted as big brother to the infant club. It is expected that the charter will be granted so that the installation ceremonies can take place this month. Oneonta Rotary will be in charge of the installation and that organization has a committee hard at work on plans.

The following men compose the charter membership: George H. White, Rev. Clarence E. Brown, Frank J. Shipman, Harris L. Cooke, M. M. Brewster, Dr. Harr, L. Crutenden, Dr. A. H. Blase, M. S. Lippitt, M. F. Augur, Prof. M. J. Muller, Ralph V. Ellsworth, R. W. Speaker, Marvin Moakler, George H. Carley, J. Harry Cooke, Frank Malinck, H. L. Kimball, William C. Smalley, Charles A. Scott, Hubbard L. Brasse, Owen G. Clark, William L. McEwan, Raaph D. Wood, K. V. Root and Harry Freeman.

The directors of the club are: Harris L. Cooke, Frank B. Shipman, M. E. Lippitt, W. M. Bronner, Hubbard L. Brasse and Rev. Clarence E. Brown. A constitution and by-laws have been adopted and the following officers elected: President, "Ned" Brown; first vice president, "Harris" Cook; treasurer, "Hub" Brasse; secretary, "George" Carley; and sergeant-at-arms, "Sam" Brewster.

Wednesday meetings have been held Wednesdays but hereafter will be held on Tuesdays at 12:15 p.m., at the New Fenimore.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held this noon, the first without the supervision of "Grandfather" Roscoe Briggs of Oneonta Rotary. An impromptu of the song, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," in which "George" While's return from Europe was celebrated was an enjoyable feature. "Back across the ocean, he brought the Rotary notion," was one of the themes of the day.

"Ad" Blase talked concerning his impressions of Rotary as gained from attendance at a meeting of the Oneonta club and Attorney David F. Lee of Norwich, where it is understood, a Rotary club is in process of formation, also spoke.

ENDORSES BOY SCOUT COUNCIL CAMPAIGN

AMERICAN CHEVIOT SOCIETY

Annual Meeting of National Association Held Yesterday at Cooperstown—W. T. Hyde Again President

I consider the Boy Scout movement the most efficient organization in the United States to develop punch in the youngsters of today. It teaches them love for the outdoors, makes them unafraid of the night, teaches them how to take care of themselves and gives them an education in the cleaner and finer things of nature. It also gives them the moral training of saying what they think and meaning what they say.

It is very evident that the thinking citizens of Oneonta will do their part in financing the proposed Boy Scout Council for Otsego and Schoharie counties.

"FORDING LINCOLN HIGHWAY."

Moving Pictures of Ten Millionth Ford at Oneonta Theatre Today.

"Fording the Lincoln Highway," a moving picture showing something of the recent trip across the continent of the ten-millionth automobile to be produced by the Ford Motor company, is to be shown at the Oneonta theatre today and it is anticipated that many will take advantage of this opportunity to see the picture which carries a number of very entertaining scenes.

At Hollywood, Cal., for instance, Douglas McLean is introduced into the picture and he made the remark: "The Ten Millionth Ford! Why say, no one ever made that many roller skates."

Other celebrities seen in the picture include William S. Hart in cowboy costume with his famous pony, "Pinto," Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, and Eddie Plank, famous pitcher for the Athletics who greeted the car as the "Ten Millionth hit for Ford."

Recently, while visiting at Big Flats, N. Y., a physician there told me his wife was unable to get bi-focal glasses she could wear, either at Elmira or Corning, asked me if I could not correct the trouble, so she would not be obliged to bother with two pairs of glasses. We examined her two pairs and without examination of her eyes made her glasses into bi-focals with the result that she is now wearing them with greatest comfort. Her letter received recently tells the story.

NEW CHEVROLET HERE TODAY

Will be on exhibition at the show rooms of the local distributor, Fred N. VanWie, Elm Street.

The new model Chevrolet, which has been heralded as a distinct advance in the creation of popular models of this well known make of motor car, will be on exhibition at the show rooms of Fred N. VanWie, local distributor, as early today as it can be unloaded from the car in which it arrived in Oneonta last night and placed in the VanWie store. Its arrival has been awaited by many and no doubt will attract many spectators to the store today.

An announcement sent out from the factory has the following reference to the new types which will all be shown at the New York show:

All models have full stream-line bodies, with refinements in design which make them the most beautiful cars Chevrolet has ever produced. New clutch of the dry plate disc type, completely enclosed with fly-wheel.

New axles—rear axle is entirely new of banjo type construction and with one-piece pressed steel housing.

New springs of the semi-spherical type, longer and easier riding.

New and heavier channel steel frame 38 inches longer, with five sturdy cross members.

New improvements in the already famous Chevrolet motor, such as heavier crankshaft with larger connecting rod bearings; longer and larger center main bearings; shorter intake manifold, bringing the carburetor closer to the cylinders, insuring better carburation and easier starting; rocker arms and valves completely enclosed.

Many features which make for comfort and convenience have been incorporated in the new bodies. The open bodies are roomier; the front seat has been tilted back at the top for more comfortable seating; the spring constructed in the seats has been substantially improved; the rear cushion seat has been lowered at the back; the tonneau floor boards have been lowered and the front section placed at an angle to serve as foot rest.

All closed bodies are built by Fisher and have the rounded curves and graceful lines that have come to be associated with all products of this company. They have the "VV" one-piece windshield, with regulator located above the windshield and automatic windshield wiper, controlled from the dash. This new windshield affords unobstructed vision and perfect ventilation. All closed cars have new type metal door checks operating at the tops of the doors.

There is a dome light in coach and sedan and robe rail in sedan.

All body types are equipped with cowls lights and new instrument board refined and designed for maximum room.

The windshield in the open body types has been so changed that the rear weather-stripping between the upper and lower windshield can in no way interfere with vision.

All bodies are finished in Duco, the new and lustrous finish which retains its glow indefinitely and is practically impervious to damage. Chevrolet is the lowest priced car to introduce Duco finish on all its standard body types.

Walter Knabeck, three-time captain of Columbia's football teams, is here receiving more than mere praise for his great work on the gridiron. Royal Clegg, chairman of the student body, is presenting him with a watch, the gift of the undergraduates. Knabeck was selected as one of the half backs on Walter Camp's All-American.

Christmas in Moscow.

One of the most significant items of the week was the telegram from Moscow, telling how Christmas was celebrated in that city. Despite the communistic edict against the church and religion, countless Russians crowded their places of worship and took part in Christmas services, thereby demonstrating once and for all, that Christianity is stronger than Bolshevism.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

A Great Adventure.

The death of A. Henry Savage Landor will remind the world that it still has great adventurers. Like his distinguished grandfather, Mr. Landor had an ardent imagination, but he worked it out in exploring jungles and mountain peaks instead of pouring it into poems and imaginary conversations.—New York Sun.

LATEST VICTIM NOTES

Messages of Interest as Told in His Changes.

An Urgent Case.

The case of John L. Gray against the Western Union Telegraph company has been settled in full. Mr. Gray received a check for $10 a few days ago, says the Deposit Journal. The claim was rather an interesting one and somewhat out of the ordinary, arising from the failure of the telegraph company to deliver a telegram sent by Mrs. Gray from Cheektowaga, N. Y., to her husband. The failure of delivery caused Mr. Gray to drive his car to Albany where he was to meet Mrs. Gray, and his expenses on the trip formed the basis for the claim.

New Buildings at State School.

Bids were opened on Tuesday by the trustees of the State School at Cobleskill for the new gymnasium and live stock judging pavilion. The work was divided into four parts covering construction, heating, plumbing and electrical fitting. Sixteen bids were received in all.

The total amount of the appropriation for the building is $20,000. The total of the four lowest bids is $19,342. The matter has been submitted to the State Architect for further action, but the trustees hope and expect that a way will be found to let the contracts without further bidding.

Losses Life in Cement Plant.

Frank Smith of Old Central Bridge lost his life at the plant of the Helberger Cement Co. at Howe Cave about ten o'clock last Sunday morning when he became caught in a conveyor belt and his body was carried into the machinery. Death was almost instantaneous, being due to a broken neck. An examination showed that his body and spine had been badly bruised in the heavy machine.

Hardens Insurance Workers.

Employees of the Hardens Manufacturing Corp. at Cobleskill who have been with the company for a period of a year or more, were rewarded at Christmas time each with a check of $40 and also a paid up life insurance policy scaled up to $1000 according to length of service with the company.

Daniel Avery Dies at 93.

Daniel Avery, the oldest resident in Fleischmanns, died at his home in this village last Thursday morning after a lingering illness. He was born in Halcott 93 years ago, the oldest in a family of twelve children of whom only the youngest, Dewitt Avery, is now living.

SICK 3 YEARS WITHOUT RELIEF

Finally Found Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Columbia, S. C.—Your medicine has done me so much good that I feel like I owe my life to it. For three years I was sick and was treated by physicians, but they didn't seem to help me any. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got strong enough to do my housework, where before I was hardly able to be up. I have also taken the Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life and it has left me in good health. I recommend it as the best medicine for women in the Change of Life and you can use these facts as a testimonial.

Mrs. S. A. Hollen, P. P. D. No. 4, Columbia, South Carolina.

Why suffer for years with backache, nervousness, painful times and other ailments common to women from early life to middle age, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring relief? Take it when annoying symptoms first appear and avoid years of suffering.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over 200,000 replies were received, and 96 out of every 100 reported they were benefited by its use.

No Chance For Mistake.

If the purpose of the statement issued by M. Clementel, French minister of finance, purporting to be a balance sheet of French assets and liabilities and making no mention of the war debt of France to the United States, were as a hint of warning, or as a preliminary of special pleading, it finds immediate answer from the administration at Washington. There will be no cancellation of the French debt. Repudiation on the part of France is too ugly a thing to be perpetrated by that nation.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

STOCKS DISPLAY GREAT STRENGTH

Both Rail and Industrial Averages
Higher Than These for Year
Just Closed

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES

	20 Industrials	20 Rail.
Friday	120.93	102.67
Wednesday	119.77	101.16
Week ago	117.39	101.96
High	119.77	102.96
Low	99.27	91.96
Total stock sales	1,914,500 shares
x Ex-dividend		95.75

New York, Jan. 2.—The stock market today began the new year with a remarkable display of strength which extended to practically all groups. Both the rail and industrial averages showed substantial gains on the day, the later rising to the highest level on record. Total sales slightly exceeded 1,900,000 shares.

Chief speculative interests centered in a few specialties which were whirled upward at the expense of an overcrowded short interest. American Bosch's Magnetic registered a particularly rise of nearly 19 points in the final hour, touching 49% and then slipping back about a point. Radio corporation jumped 13 points to a record high of 77%.

Fourty-four issues eclipsed their high prices of last year, the list including nine oils, seven rails, five motors, and four equipments. Some of the outstanding strong spots were American Car & Foundry, Electric Storage Battery, Westinghouse, American Bank Note, Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies preferred, Butterick Publishing, Quill-Peabody, Pressed Steel Car, Twin City Rapid Transit, and United Fruit, all up from three to seven points.

Rails were slow in getting started but they finally swung upward under the leadership of the southwestern carriers. Katy preferred touched 78, the highest price since 1905, and the common sold at 21, the highest price since 1912, both showing net gains of more than two points on the day. Jersey Central jumped eight points to 238, and gains of a point or more were registered by Atchison, Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake & Ohio, Rock Island common, Great Northern preferred, Lehigh Valley, Missouri Pacific, Reading, Frisco common, Southern railway, Wabash preferred "A," Wheeling & Lake Erie, Delaware & Hudson, and Lackawanna.

Bond prices maintained a firm tone as the new year was ushered in with a fresh burst of activity. Some irregularity developed in spots, but the trend of public utility, semi-speculative rail and foreign government bonds was definitely upward.

While liquidation of high priced railroad bonds was in evidence, buying of the more speculative issues was renewed on a large scale. Seaboard Air Line obligations led the advance quarters points, while a varied assortment of issues, including Katy adjustment #5, Erie convertible "D," Chicago & Eastern Illinois P's, International-Great Northern adjustment 6's, New Haven convertible 6's, and Western Pacific first 5's, moved up one to two points.

COASTS NEED MORE DEFENSIVE ARMS

Come to Exchange Those of Any Battleship Needed to Protect Wealth and Population

Washington, Jan. 2.—Modern coast defense guns outranking those of any battleship should be installed to protect American coast cities of great wealth and population, and at strategic points of our insular possessions, such as the Panama canal and Hawaiian Islands, Brigadier General Alvin E. Nolan, deputy chief of staff of the army, testified before the sub-committee which considered the war department appropriation bill, hearings on which were made public today.

Many years of planning and intensive study, General Nolan said, were represented in the plans for coast defense fortifications, which are "on a sound basis" and indispensable to the protection of larger seaports.

Major Robert W. Crawford, in charge of fortifications and construction in the office of the chief of engineers, explained to the committee that one big gun position, in the vicinity of Los Angeles, is to be used for a 14-inch railway gun of the latest model. He said the war department desires to conduct firing tests against coast defense targets under war conditions to determine the feasibility of the gun's movement and its value as a coast defense weapon.

Defenses near Los Angeles, Major Crawford declared, are not sufficiently strong and additional defenses are needed. The big railway gun and emplacement would automatically work into the defenses of Los Angeles, he said.

Major Crawford said the army's big gun project called for 28 sixteen inch guns in the United States and insular possessions, of which 14 are to be in this country.

EXILED SENATORS RETURN TO HOMES

15 Who Left Rhode Island Six Months Ago Summoned Back—Some Re-Elected

Providence, R. I., Jan. 2.—Fifteen Rhode Island Republican senators, self-exiled in Rutland, Mass., since June, in protest against the Democratic filibuster in the state senate, will return to their homes in this state tomorrow.

The signal to return was flashed to them from Republican headquarters here today, when the senate, which has been in continuous theoretic session from day to day since the senators fled, adjourned. Under the law the senate cannot meet again before inauguration day, Tuesday, at which time the new general assembly will take office. The Rutland exiles, although not all returned to office, will attend the inauguration exercises in body.

Of the 22 senators who originally fled to Rutland, one has died, one has been ill at home and three have been spending more or less time in the state. A sixth is living in Worcester and the seventh, Senator Harry A. Sanderson of Johnston has been in Rhode Island to attend the session of the senate in order to raise the question of quorum in the event that the Democrats tried to transact business.

WEEKS CALLS ARMY UNIFORMS DISGRACE

Dress of Soldiers at Harding's Funeral Compared Unfavorably With That of Marines

Washington, Jan. 2.—Soldiers wore uniforms "that were a disgrace to the service" on the streets of Washington when the body of President Harding was taken from the capitol to the station en route to Marion, O., Secretary Weeks testified before the sub-committee which today reported the army supply bill to the house.

"I do not think I ever found out where those army men came from, but I was positively ashamed," said the war secretary. "I looked across the street at the marines, and then turned and looked at our men. The marines were deep blue uniforms. It was a most humiliating thing, and it hurt the enlisted men of the army," he asserted. Secretary Weeks was explaining the sale of army uniforms material. During the war, he said, there were as many varieties of color in army uniforms "as there were in Joseph's coat," and the point had been reached where the men "seriously objected to some of the shoddy material they were wearing."

MEN ON BANK; COFFEE GIVEN TO THOSE WAITING IN LINE

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 2.—Sandwiches and coffee were furnished by a local bank at noon today to a group of depositors who were waiting to get their money in a run of the institution following the closing the two Des Moines banks Wednesday.

The depositors had been waiting for several hours when lunch hour came, but did not wish to relinquish their places in line. The bank's officers came to the rescue, however, ordering the management of a nearby restaurant to furnish sandwiches and coffee. The bank withheld the run.

TO PERPETUATE DRAFT BOARDS

Washington, Jan. 2.—Frank Comerford of Chicago, president of the Service Veterans of the United States, conferred today with war department officials regarding a plan to perpetuate the selective draft boards as an integral part of the nation's defense. Mr. Comerford said the organization planned to place the matter before President Coolidge and congress.
